From 2002 the China International Railway Conference for Urban & Intercity Transit (CIRC) and the Rail+Metro China Show have formed two pillars that together have shown the way through 18 years of full-throttle railway development, playing key witness to the country's transportation revolution.

With the launch of China’s “One Belt One Road” global economic strategy, China’s advance in rail transit technology manufacturing and railway infrastructure construction has become far and away the shining light of economic development for export. Originating in Shanghai, CIRC and Rail+Metro China follow the city of Shanghai’s unique driving principles of “Broadening Expertise, Pursuing Excellence, Enlightening Wisdom, and Humble Attitude” – which guide the direction of our efforts that are embodied in the concepts of Cooperation, Innovation, Regeneration, and Civilization.

In 2020, CIRC and Rail+Metro China will be held in Lujiazui, the beating heart of Shanghai. The conference and exhibition will be deeply integrated so as to best serve the global rail transit industry in attendance, with world-class standards applied to our diverse range of professional meeting activities and focusing both topics and exhibits on areas of relevance to the entire Asia-Pacific region.
